THE BOUTIQUE

Long Island Coalition for the Homeless provides a special Distribution Center, a “Boutique”, that gives people in need a chance to come and pick out clothes and other essential items. These clothing options can range from casual to business attire.

Using a voucher system, folks receive a “dollar value” up to which they may “spend”. All items are free! “Dollar value” is only used to manage inventory. Clothing is available in all sizes: infant through adult and everything in between.

We collect items for the homeless year-round with the help of generous volunteers in the community who host drives for us at their schools, places of business, places of worship, and among friends and family.

“Our goal is to provide everyone with the opportunity to receive the clothing and items needed for their well being.”

HELP VOLUNTEER!

Bring out your inner fashionista!

We need volunteers for
The Boutique!

By volunteering your time you can help countless homeless and at risk individuals and families get much needed clothing! We need people who are organized, fun and dedicated! Items need to be sorted and displayed. Spending just a few hours can help us further improve our beautiful boutique. Helping out will also provide you with a great opportunity to meet some of our wonderful veterans and other volunteers, who spend their time improving the Boutique.
